LATE TELEGRAMS.

Things Coming to a Head. London, August 29 .- The Times' Peking correspondent, in a telegram, says that we are within a measurable time of events in the Far East which will compel the attention of the world. Januar presented at St. Petersburg, on the 12th metant, proposals for a modus viv-endi, requiring reciprocal recognition or re-spective rights of the two Powers in Manchuria and Korea.

If the scorn ul attitude of the Russians in the Fac East towards Japanese preten-sions reflects the opinion of the authorities at St. Petersburg, there can be little ex-pectation of an amicable settlement.

Insurance Frauds.

August 19.—John Grant, a director, and Benjamin Arthur Blackhurst, the secretary of the Star Fire and Bargisry Insurance Company, of Glasgow, have been sentenced to twelve months' and nine months' imprisonment respectively, at Edinburgh, for fraud. The accused, it was proved, had promoted and started the Company with a capital of £6. They accepted large risks and by false representations, made it appear that the Company had a guarantee fund of £70,000.

Their departure was marked by a tremendous public demonstration. The station was gorgeously decorated.

To-night Lord Northcote has been entertained to dioner at Bombay. In the course of a long farewell speech, he alluded to the trials through which the Presidency had passed; the devotion of the officials; and the help of the people. Steamer Blown up.

London, September 3.—The steamer Vaskapu, from Varna, to Constantinople, has been blown up in the Black Sea.
Three formidable explosions took place, apparently on the deck. The captain, officers, and six of the crew, and a number of passengers, were killed. Altogether twenty-uine perished.

Later.—The blowing up of the steamer

OOD SAVE THE KING.

Where have they all Gone to?

A careful estimate made a few days ago by a Chinese official, who has been connected with the various arsenals throughout the country, at one time or another, of the number of modern-style small arms made by the Chinese Government since 1901, would surprise many of our readers, says the N .C. Daily News. It is stated that within these last three years or so the arsenals in the North, Central, West and Southern provinces of the Empire have turned out no less than 80,000 stands of arms, with ammunition to match. Then we have the quickfiring guns that are being cast, battery after battery, all prepared to use smokeless powder. Furthermore, leaving the above aside, there have been the Mausers and other magazine rifles and Reverting to the Old Lines. It is stated from P. king that the Empress Dowager never forgets her cumity against reform, and takes every occasion to impress upon those who happen to be with her to keep a good watch on the education of the youths of the country, so as to prevent the new learning from penetrating into the schools and colleges of the Empire, forgetting apparently that these yery institutions had been established by her special orders to teach these young students the modern sciences. But this was in 1971 when she was anxious to get on the rig s'de of the Foreign Powers and inveigle the latter into the belief that she was intent upon reform now and ready to throw the whole country open to modern education, or the New Learning. She is now, however, as she thinks, firmly seated on her usurped Throne, and so there is no more need, apparently, to maintain any mark upon her actions. With this in view she has, says the N.-C. Daily News, lately thrown upon the country a host of Conservative and reactionary Literary Chancellors and Ex-miners, whose duty, amongst other secret instructions, will be this year and next to bestow the literary dignities of Haiuta'ai and Chujen (licentiate, or B.A., and M. A.) upon those only who show in their essays a desire to closely adhere to the old order of things. tion sets in, they may be healed without This is the 'tip,' and a word to the wise sufficient. We need not be surprised at all.

A Junk Captured.

A case of piracy in Chinese waters is reported here. From the report it appears that while Chinese junk No. 3, Captain Fung Shi, with a crew of forty men, was proceeding to Hongkong from Tai Shap, on Wednesday last she was attacked by pirates

On the morning in question, at about approached within hailing distance, his suspicions were aroused at the operations which he could see were being carried out on deck. He hailed the ship, and immediately a shower of bullets fl-w across the water in the direction of his junk. JUDGMENT IN A . LAIM FOR $1000. Judgment was delivered in the case of Kwong Sui Hing, Kwong Kam Chuen, Lan Chun Ming and Tang Pui Cheong, alias Pui Cheong Tong, trading under the name of Hop Shing Tong, plaintiffs, sersus Kwok Chui Hin, defendant. Plain iff claimed the sum of $1000 due on a promiss ry note given by defendant to plaintiffs a d dated May 31, 1903, pir M. W. Slade (matructed by Mr E J. Grist, of Messrs Wilkinson and Grist) appeared for the plaintiffs, whilst the detendant was represented by Mr H. E. Pollock,

K.U. (matructed by Mr G, K. Hall Brut-His Lordship stated that the plaintiffs and deleadant were partners in Bismarck and Co., a firm carrying on business in Hongkong and Port Arthur. Af the end of last year a fire occurred in the promises at Port Arthur and the insurance company or companies paid over $115,000. The branch. Then the question arose as to how-much defendent should pay for the Port Arthur business. They could not come to terms and a telegram was sent ing robberies, instead of turning their to the agent at Port Arthur asking him to state the full value of the business there, In due course a telegram returned, a ating, Landed property, (brick kiln) capital $10,000 valued at 80 per cent; capital account for goods $25,0 ou at 70 per cent; damaged goods $10,000, at 60 per cent. After setting off outstanding debts amount on current accounts $6800. Total estimated amount in Port Arthur and Dalny $37,000.' Un the face of that telegram the parties took it that that was the value of the property and further negotiations were made spon it. It was arranged that the defendant should pay $20,000 for the Port Arthur property. Apparently some $16,000 were pad in cash or some other way, and scoording to plaintiffs the balance was to be paid in promissory notes, one of which was the subject of the action. That was the plaintiffs' story. Now, the defendant stated that he did not sign promissory notes, that he signed documents to the effect that he would pay the Hop Shing Tong the exact amount of $1000, being capital for goods. He also said that there was a verbal condition that payment was not to be made until the accounts in the Port Arthur business had been inspected. The plaintiffs denied that and he (the Judge) thought he might as well dispose of the point at once, and say that it was a most dangerous thing to import a verbal agreement into documentary matters upon the unsupported evidence of one party. It was distinctly agreed that the term should be one month in which repayment should be made. The defendant denied that it was on the document that he signed, and stated that it was put in afterwards. It was rather an invidious thing for a European to offer an opinion upon Chinese handwriting, but he had to do it. After Colony would our title 'dot' be .- Yours, examining the characters he was strongly &c., of opinion that the alleged additions were in the same handwriting as the other por tion. The only way that he could explain the lightness of the ink in places was that the pen got empty at that particular moment He would also like to remark that in the early part of the case the documents were described by the defendant in his affidavit as promissory notes, and it was only later on that he found out that they say shout the present discontent, and were acknowledgments of indebtedness. There were two reasons why he could not conceive that these should be forgories. the same man was going to make additions it seemed to him that he would have been a fool if he did not try to keep the writing closer, and if the time had been altered why was it not made payment on demand instead of a month hence? CORRESPONDENCE. CRUELTY TO, ANIMALS. To the Editor of the 'CHINA MAIL.'

Hongkong, September 19. Sin, - It is most gratifying to find so much interest taken in the S.P.C.A., as evidenced by correspondence in the local press. We are, however, still behind our leader, Shanghai, for in that Model Settlement many years ago was started the 'White Shield Society,' which did so much good that it was only required for a short period and has now ceased to exist.

Judging from a letter in your morning contemporary, however, I am sorry to that such a Society as the above is evident ly wanted, were it only to examine 'such letters before publication, and to prevent half the community being credited with vocal powers and acrobatic performances to which, I am sure, they do not aspire. --

Sir. - It has repeatedly been brought to the notice of the authorities that the residential district from Caine Road upwards and east and west has no Police Station nearer than the Central. I do not remember whether any explanation was ever given why the small station in Caine Road was abolished. But I de know that Polica facilities do not follow in the wake of the house-builder, and now hundreds of house. have been built and occupied, and the number of Police Stations has decreased! this in accordance with commonseuse, or with public safety? I ray it is not.
